

THEY BLAME YOU

SO YOU WON'T BLAME BILLIONAIRES

ANTI-BILLIONAIRES VOTER GUIDE

TAKING BACK OUR ECONOMY & EVERYDAY LIVELIHOODS

This November, we’re putting a stop to lying billionaires scamming our pockets. Their record profits are from our unpaid wages and exploitation of workers. Wages that could buy our first homes, pay school tuition, and afford everyday necessities.

We say down with the old guard and their billionaire backers. We’re taking back our power one vote at a time. Vote for a California all of us can afford.

Here’s our voter’s guide. Let’s take back our future.

AND REMEMBER:
ANYTHING BILLIONAIRE BACKED, WILL ONLY SET US BACK.

DEFINITELY YES	DEFINITELY NO	DEFINITELY NO
PROP 1: Authorizes 11.25 billion in bonds for affordable housing.	PROP 38: Authorizes $8.4 Billion for disease research at UC and nonprofits.	PROP 44: Requires community clinics to spend a minimum of 90% of their total revenue on “program services”.
PROP 2: Allows larger rainy-day fund deposits and repayment of unemployment debt.	PROP 39: Requires government-issued ID to vote or the last four digits of your ID.	PROP 45: Fast-tracks environmental review for housing and transportation projects without strong assessment.
PROP 3: Extends existing tax rates on California’s highest earners to fund schools, healthcare, and other public programs.	PROP 41: Requires program audits before special taxes and limits new tax revenue for public programs.
PROP 4: Allows public financing of state and local election campaigns.	PROP 42: Limits new tax revenue dedicated to public programs.
PROP 5: Requires a separate election to replace recalled state officials.
PROP 40: One time 5% billionaire tax to cover federal healthcare cuts.	PROP 43: Requires two-thirds voter approval for local special tax measures. Makes it hard for cities to address the cost of living crisis.	PROP 37: Authorizes $25 Billion in bonds in downpayment assistance for middle-class homebuyers.
